

Lil Manger

Lil Manger is a counsellor for women fleeing violence at a women's shelter. She has been working with women fleeing violence and experiencing homelessness for the last ten years, at various women's shelters and drop-in centres in Toronto. She has her Masters of Public Policy, Administration and Law (MPPAL) from York University, an Honours Bachelor of Arts from the University of Toronto and the Assaulted Women's and Children's Counsellor/Advocate Program (AWCCA) from George Brown College. Lil also served as the Ontario New Democratic Party's (ONDP) LGBTQ Co-Chair, was a member of the ONDP Executive Committee and is currently in her third term as LGBTQ Representative for the ONDP Parkdale-High Park Riding Association. Lil has been going to High Holidays services at Shir Libeynu for years and is looking forward to bringing her feminist anti-racism/anti-oppression and social-justice informed framework to the Shir Libeynu Board.
