

UPDATED HIGH HOLY DAYS PARKING INFORMATION

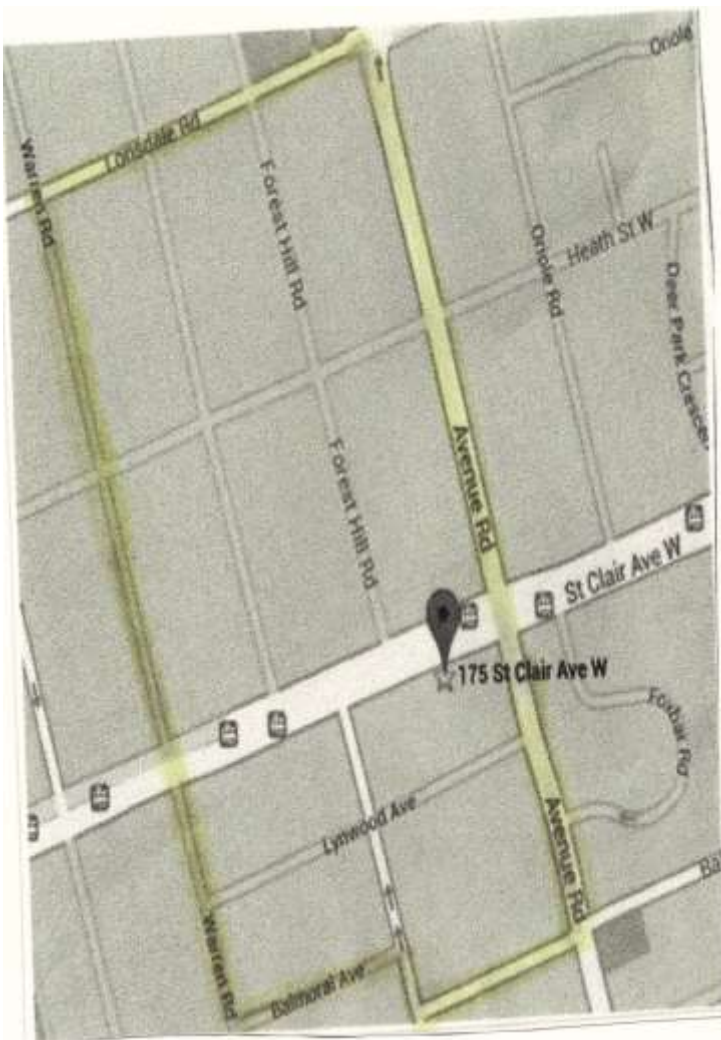

Please note that Toronto Police Services have changed its parking policy. Events like religious services no longer get formal parking accommodations issued.

Andrea Seivwright of the Toronto Police Service Parking Enforcement Office has issued the following parking consideration:

Officers will be instructed to give Shir Libeynu congregants attending our High Holy Day services at First Unitarian Congregation, 175 St. Clair Avenue West parking consideration on the following dates and times:

- Rosh Hashanah Eve — Sunday, October 2, 5:00 p.m. – 12:15 a.m.
- Rosh Hashanah Day 1 — Monday, October 3, 8:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.
- Rosh Hashanah Day 2 — Tuesday, October 4, 9:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.
- Kol Nidrei (Yom Kippur Eve) — Tuesday, October 11, 5:00 p.m. – 11:15 p.m.
- Yom Kippur — Wednesday, October 12, 9:00 a.m. – 10:15 p.m.

Parking consideration applies to the area highlighted below:

This consideration only applies to:

Temporal parking regulations (i.e. 1-hour and 3-hour maximum time limits) and "No Parking" areas

Consideration does not apply to following:

North side of Lonsdale Road. The north side of Lonsdale road is a school zone and therefore anyone who parks on the north side will be ticketed and towed. You may only park on the south side of the street on Lonsdale Road.

St. Clair Avenue West, where parking is not permitted during all signed rush hour restrictions.

Avenue Road – there is no parking permitted on this road at any time.

Pay Parking locations

On streets during times when Permit Parking is in operation

Enforcement will still take place of all other parking, stopping, and standing prohibitions, as well as No Parking within 0.6 m of a driveway or within 15 m of an intersection and pay-and-display parking.

It is suggested that you print this letter and put it on your dashboard as a reminder to the Toronto Police Service of the special parking consideration.

Shir Libeynu is not responsible for any tickets issued by the parking authorities.

Any congregant who receives a ticket and wants to have it cancelled due to this parking consideration should contact Officer Andrea Seivwright's office at 416-808-6675.
