

Responsibilities of Board Members

At the first meeting of the new board, the board members must elect from amongst themselves the following officers: (1) President, (2) Treasurer, (3) Vice-President (optional) and (4) Secretary.

Board members are elected for a three-year term.

Duties of board members include:

- Attendance at every board meeting
- Board meetings take place 8 times a year
- Timely responses to email communications
- Attendance at AGM
- Regular attendance at Shabbat morning services
- Regular attendance at b'nei mitzvah services
- Attendance at High Holy Day services
- Regular attendance at Shir Libeynu events during the year
- Maintaining confidentiality about matters discussed by the board
- Promoting Shir Libeynu on social media and in other public arenas, if asked.

If you decide that you cannot currently commit to the above, please consider volunteering with Shir Libeynu in another capacity.

Procedure for Election to the Board:

If you decide to run, please submit your candidacy by emailing shirlibeynu@yahoo.ca by Tuesday, November 29, 2016 . Please include your curriculum vitae and a paragraph or two about what contributions you believe you can make to Shir Libeynu.

Candidates will speak for three minutes (or less) at the AGM. Each candidate will be voted on individually.
