Selfies, Tattoos, and the "Yolocaust":
When Holocaust Remembrance Goes Wrong

In this interactive workshop, Daniel Panneton will address distinctive ways that people are engaging with Holocaust remembrance in the 21st century.

Topics of discussion will include the ethics of taking selfies at concentration camps and Holocaust memorials, the rise of Holocaust-related memes on the Internet, the Miss Holocaust Survivor pageant, Holocaust tattoos, and more.

Daniel Panneton is the Programs & Education Assistant at the Sarah and Chaim Neuberger Holocaust Education Centre

The theme of this year's Holocaust Education Week (Sunday, November 3 – Sunday, November 10) is "The Holocaust and Now." Congregation Shir Libeynu thanks the Sarah and Chaim Neuberger Holocaust Education Centre for providing a speaker for our pre-Holocaust Education Week presentation.
